Split Trust – Discretionary

Important notes

Please read these notes prior to completion. The following trust form should not be used for pension plans.

This version of the split trust is designed to allow payment of the plan proceeds to the trustees without grant of probate/administration/confirmation.

The trust form is designed for use only with plans issued by Royal London (and the divisions known as Bright Grey and Scottish Provident). It may be used with Scottish Provident Self Assurance and Pegasus Plans, provided the Pegasus plan does not have critical illness cover which includes the buy back option.

The trust form and these notes in relation to its use are for general guidance only and are based on our current understanding of the law as it applies in England and Wales and HM Revenue & Customs practice. No responsibility can be taken by Royal London or any of its subsidiary companies for the interpretation of the law or future changes in the law or practice. Tax liabilities and the ability of the donor in law to set up a trust are dependent on individual circumstances. We strongly recommend that you take separate legal and taxation advice prior to signing the trust form and while the trust is in existence particularly if any changes are to be made to the interests of beneficiaries.

Part – reserved to donor

Part – discretionary trust for discretionary beneficiaries, excluding donor as beneficiary

The additional purpose of this trust is to ensure that any benefit paid on death or diagnosis of terminal illness, or critical illness or total permanent disability where the donor fails to survive diagnosis by 30 days, is outside the estate of the donor for inheritance tax purposes (the “gifted benefits”). In this case the gifted benefits are held upon trust for other persons as beneficiaries selected by the donor. If the donor survives a diagnosis of critical illness or total permanent disability by 30 days, the critical illness benefit or total permanent disability benefit will be held by the trustees for the donor absolutely.

Any surrender value is also a gifted benefit, to be held for the discretionary beneficiaries.

At the same time the trust ensures that the retained benefits are held for the absolute benefit of the donor. The retained benefits means the right to any payment comprised in the Trust Fund which is not comprised in the gifted benefits.

The trust is a discretionary trust, which means that on the donor’s death or diagnosis of terminal illness, or critical illness or total permanent disability where the donor fails to survive diagnosis by 30 days, the gifted benefits will be held for the benefit of the discretionary beneficiaries. The trustees have flexibility to determine who among the discretionary beneficiaries is to receive the gifted benefits and in what shares and proportions. The donor can add to the list of discretionary beneficiaries specified in the trust at any time. The donor can also complete a letter of wishes to guide the trustees as to which of the discretionary beneficiaries he would like to receive benefits.

The payment of premiums by the donor will normally be exempt for inheritance tax purposes by reason of the annual exemption or the normal expenditure out of income exemption. A transfer of an existing plan into trust will be a transfer of value for inheritance tax purposes but the amount of the value transferred will normally be negligible if the person covered is in good health at the date of the creation of the trust.

Any increase in the value of the trust fund (excluding the value of the retained benefits) will potentially be outside the donor’s estate for inheritance tax purposes. For this reason, therefore, the donor must not be named as a beneficiary. If he is, then this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the trust.

Completing the trust form (The numbering denotes the relevant clause in the trust form.)

The donor – creating the trust

The date of the trust form is the date it is completed by the donor. The date must be inserted under the donor's signature on page 12. The trust form can be completed for a plan that is already in existence or in anticipation of a plan being put in place where an application form has been completed or where an application form is yet to be completed. Under this trust, the plan is assigned to the trustees and the legal owner of the plan will be the trustees.

Who are the trustees?

The trustees are the legal owners of the plan, holding it upon trust for the benefit of the person(s) specified in the trust.

F1 The donor (to be entered here) is automatically a trustee.

F3 The trustees are the persons who will be entitled to the trust fund (as defined at F8 – see below), holding it upon trust for the donor (in respect of the retained benefits) and, if the donor dies or is diagnosed with an accepted terminal illness, or fails to survive diagnosis of critical illness or total permanent disability by 30 days, the person(s) specified in the trust in respect of the gifted benefits.

F2 The trust requires there to be at least two trustees: see D1. There must be at least one additional trustee added at F2 for the trust to operate effectively, but up to four additional trustees may be nominated. The donor is automatically a trustee: see above. We recommend that at least two additional trustees be appointed at the outset since an additional trustee will be required if the death of the donor results in there being only one trustee remaining. If the donor and the single additional trustee die before the plan is paid and there are no other additional trustees, probate or confirmation will be required before payment can be made. All the trustees will normally be required to sign the discharge form issued by the insurer in respect of any payment of plan monies.

We strongly recommend that one of the trustees be independent i.e. someone who is not a beneficiary or donor of the trust. Trustees must be aged 18 (16 in Scotland) or over.

The full name, including any middle names, and address of each additional trustee must be completed. The additional trustee must have agreed to take on the role before being listed on this trust form. It is the donor's responsibility to provide them with a copy of this trust form – Royal London will not contact the trustees directly. The donor should also inform the trustees that their details may be checked against databases held by Experian, and that Royal London may also pass information to organisations involved in money laundering and fraud prevention in order to protect themselves and their customers from theft and fraud.

D2 The donor may appoint new trustees to act with the existing trustees of the trust. After the donor's death, the trustees may appoint new trustees.

D3 The donor, so long as there are two trustees or a corporate body still acting after the removal, may remove a trustee from office.

What is included in the trust?

F8 The plan is the trust property, which includes all of the benefits under the plan. This comprises the gifted benefits (see F13) i.e. all of the benefit paid on death or diagnosis of a terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability arising under the plan which is to be held on trust for the donor's beneficiaries in the event of the donor's death or accepted terminal illness claim, or critical illness claim where the donor fails to survive diagnosis by 30 days. It also includes the retained benefits (see F14), i.e. the benefits arising under the plan which are not included in the gifted benefits, which are to be held for the donor absolutely.

F4 Details of the application for the plan or of the plan itself if it is already in force should be inserted in box (a) or (b) as appropriate. If the plan is not in force yet, the application date will be the date the paper application was completed or the date the online application was submitted. The trust form can also be completed in anticipation of an application being submitted, in which case the date of the application will be the date the paper application form is to be completed or the date the online application is to be submitted. This means the trust form will pre-date the application.

The discretionary beneficiaries

F15 The trust contains a list of discretionary beneficiaries in whose favour the trustees may appoint the whole or part of the trust fund, either permanently or revocably. During the donor's lifetime, this can only happen with his consent (see clause B2(i), proviso (A)). An appointment is effected by a simple signed and witnessed deed made by the trustees. A specimen deed of appointment is available from us.

Subject to any such appointment any income of the trust fund, unless accumulated, is distributable as it arises among the discretionary beneficiaries, in such shares as the trustees, acting by a majority, decide. The discretionary beneficiaries include the children of the donor, his remoter issue and the current, former or surviving spouses or civil partners of any of the foregoing and the spouse or civil partner of the donor. The donor may add additional persons to the class of discretionary beneficiaries by completing the space provided at F15 v and vi. The donor may also add additional persons to the class of discretionary beneficiaries at any time by a signed document given to the trustees while he is alive.

The donors must not be included as discretionary beneficiaries, as this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the trust.

Signing the trust

- G. The trust form must be signed by the donor. It may be physically signed, or by using a digital signature and the PDF accompanied by a completion certificate generated by a digital signature platform that identifies the person signing. The date must be completed underneath the donor's signature.

Once signed, a copy of the trust form must be returned to us for noting. You can send a scanned copy or a digital photograph of it by email or post a copy to the address below. You should not send us the original form, which should be kept with the plan documents and other trust papers.

A Introduction

- A1 The Donor is the beneficial owner of the Plan and wishes to declare trusts on which the Plan is held and for that purpose appoints himself and the Additional Trustees as the initial Trustees of this Trust.
- A2 The Definitions in Part F shall have the meanings set out in that Part.

B Trust Provisions

- B1 The Trustees shall hold the Retained Benefits upon trust for the absolute benefit of the Donor.
- B2i The Trustees shall, subject to the provisions of Clause B3, hold the Gifted Benefits upon trust for the benefit of such one or more of the Discretionary Beneficiaries in such proportions, on such terms and conditions and subject to such new or other trust purposes, powers and provisions as to both income and capital (including power to accumulate during such period permissible by law) as the Trustees may during the Trust Period revocably or irrevocably appoint in writing PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT (A) no appointment and no revocation of any revocable appointment shall be valid without the written consent thereto of the Donor if then living and (B) any such appointment or revocation shall not invalidate any prior payment or application of all or part of the Trust Fund (whether capital or income) made in exercise of any of the powers conferred by these Trust Terms or by law.
- B2ii Subject to any and every exercise of such power of appointment, the Trustees shall pay the income of the Trust Fund arising during the Trust Period to or for the benefit of all or such one or more of the Discretionary Beneficiaries as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion determine.
- B3 Where the Gifted Benefits include any benefit payable on the person covered being diagnosed with a Critical Illness or Total Permanent Disability, both as defined in the Plan, then in the event of the Person Covered, or if there is more than one Person Covered either of them, being diagnosed as suffering from a Critical Illness or Total Permanent Disability, and the Donor, or either of them if the Donor is two people, surviving such diagnosis by 30 days, the Trustees shall hold the benefit payable on diagnosis of a Critical Illness or Total Permanent Disability or both as the case may be for the absolute benefit of the Donor or the Donors if there are two.
- B4 Subject to the provisions of Clauses B1 and B3, the Trustees may not pay or apply the Trust Fund or any part of it to or on behalf of the Excluded Person.
- B5 In the event of the failure of the above Trusts, the capital and income of the Trust Fund or such part of it with respect to which such failure has occurred, shall be held upon Trust absolutely for the intestate heir of the last of the Discretionary Beneficiaries to die, provided that in ascertaining such heir the Excluded Person shall be deemed to have predeceased the last beneficiary so to die.

C Administrative Provisions

The Trustees shall have the following powers in addition to any powers conferred upon them by law namely:

C1 General

The Trustees shall have all the powers of investment, sale, alienation, exchange, partition, mortgage, charging, pledging, leasing, insurance, protection, improvement, equipment, dealing, disposition, and management (and all other powers) of an absolute beneficial owner of the Trust Fund. Such powers shall not be restricted by any principle of construction but shall operate according to the widest generality of which the foregoing words are capable, notwithstanding that certain powers are more particularly set out in the following clauses.

C2 Power of investment

Any money to be invested may be applied in the purchase or acquisition (either alone or jointly with other persons) of such investments, shares (including partly paid shares), stock, funds, securities, land, buildings, chattels or moveable property, deposits and securities (including bonds or securities payable to bearer) or other property of whatever nature and wherever situate, and whether involving liabilities or producing income or not, or in making such loans, with or without security, as the Trustees think fit.

C3 No requirement to diversify investments

The Trustees shall have power to retain the Trust Fund in its present state and shall not be required to diversify the investment of the Trust Fund, nor be liable for the consequences of investing, or keeping the Trust Fund invested, in, or in the shares or obligations of, a single business, company or firm, or in one asset or one type of asset.

C4 No requirement to invest in income-producing investments

No person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund shall be entitled:

C4 i To compel the sale or other realisation of any assets which do not produce income.

C4 iv To insist on the investment of any part of the Trust Fund in assets which produce income.

C5 Transfer of Trust Fund

Notwithstanding that a beneficiary is absolutely or indefeasibly entitled in possession to a share of the Trust Fund he shall not be entitled to call for the transfer to himself of his share of any divisible asset if such transfer would in the opinion of the Trustees reduce disproportionately the value of the asset remaining in the hands of the Trustees or other realisation of any indivisible asset unless such transfer or sale is called for by persons of full legal capacity who together are the owners of the entirety of the beneficial interests in the asset concerned.

C6 Life assurance

The Trustees may take out or take over policies of assurance on the life of any person with full power to surrender, vary or otherwise deal with any such policies as if they were the absolute owners of these policies.

C7 Power to lend

The Trustees may lend money or assets comprised in the Trust Fund to any person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund either with or without security, on such terms (whether or not including provision for the payment of interest) and generally as the Trustees think fit.

C8 Power to borrow

C8 i The Trustees may borrow and raise money either without security or on the security of the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, for any purpose (including the investment of the money so raised as part of the Trust Fund) and may mortgage, charge or pledge the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, as security for any money so raised.

C8 ii The Trustees may enter into borrowing arrangements jointly with other persons, whether involving joint or several liability.

C9 Powers in relation to real property and chattels

C9 i The Trustees shall have all the powers of an absolute beneficial owner in relation to the disposition, development and improvement of any land comprised in the Trust Fund.

C9 ii The Trustees shall not be bound to maintain any building or other structure on land comprised in the Trust Fund or to preserve or repair any chattels or moveable property comprised in the Trust Fund.

C10 Power to permit occupation of property and enjoyment of chattels

The Trustees shall have power to permit any person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund or any part of it to occupy, or reside in or upon, any real or immovable property, or to have the enjoyment and use of chattels or moveable property for the time being comprised in the Trust Fund, on such terms as to payment of rent, rates, taxes and other expenses and outgoings and as to insurance, repair and decoration, and generally upon such terms as the Trustees think fit.

C11 Power of appropriation

The Trustees may appropriate any part or parts of the Trust Fund in or towards satisfaction of the interest of any beneficiary and may for such purpose place such value on any property as they think fit.

C12 Powers in relation to minors

The Trustees may pay or transfer any assets comprised in, or any income of, the Trust Fund to the parent or guardian of a person who has not yet attained full legal capacity (a "minor") who is beneficially entitled to such assets or income, and the receipt of such parent or guardian shall be a full discharge to the Trustees.

C13 Power to appoint agents

The Trustees shall have power to employ one or more of their own number or other suitably qualified person or persons, other than the Excluded Person, to advise on the administration of the Trust, and to pay such person or persons out of the Trust Fund appropriate remuneration for his or their services without prejudicing the right of any Trustee to resign office.

C14 Power to delegate

The Trustees shall have power to delegate the investment of the Trust Fund on a wholly discretionary management basis.

C15 Trustee charging

A Trustee which is a trust corporation or corporate body authorised to undertake trust business shall be entitled to charge and be paid such remuneration (A) if it is appointed by the Donor as may be agreed by the Donor prior to such appointment and (B) if it is appointed otherwise than by the Donor, in accordance with its published terms for acting as a trustee.

C16 Power of restriction and amendment

The Trustees may release or restrict the future exercise of any power conferred on them and amend or add to the administrative provisions of the Trust by deed or deeds.

D Appointment of Trustees

D1 There shall at all times be at least two Trustees unless a corporate body is a Trustee.

D2 The power of appointing a new Trustee or Trustees shall belong to the Donor during his life or for so long as the Donor retains full legal capacity (and where two persons are the Donor this power shall be exercisable by them jointly during their joint lifetimes and then by the survivor of them during his lifetime).

D3 The Donor (or surviving Donor) for so long as the Donor retains full legal capacity, may remove one or more of the Trustees by sending a Notice of Removal in writing to the Trustee in question at his last known address. The sending of the Notice by recorded delivery post will be deemed due service of the Removal Notice. The removed Trustee shall co-operate (without expense to him) in executing any documents or consents required in order to terminate effectively his Trusteeship and to vest the Trust Fund in the continuing Trustees. This power of removal shall be exercisable only if there are at least two persons remaining as Trustees after the removal of any Trustee, unless a corporate body remains as sole Trustee after the removal. On the Donor's (or surviving Donor's) death or incapacity this power of removal shall vest in the continuing Trustees, subject to the same conditions.

E Ancillary Provisions

E1 Protection of the Trustees generally

E2 Exclusion of benefit to Trustees

No power, discretion or authority may be exercised so as to benefit a person who is a Trustee unless at least one other Trustee who takes no benefit is also a party to such exercise.

E3 Extended power of maintenance

Without prejudice to any exercise of the power conferred on them by Clause C12 the Trustees may at their sole discretion and in such manner as they think fit apply any income, whenever arising, to which a beneficiary who is a minor is entitled, for his maintenance, education or benefit. Income which is not so applied shall be retained and added to the share of the capital of the Trust Fund to which the minor beneficiary is prospectively entitled.

E4 Extended power of advancement

The Trustees may at any time or times advance to any beneficiary any part or the whole of the capital of the Trust Fund to which that beneficiary may be entitled or prospectively entitled (whether defeasibly, contingently or in default).

E5 Exclusion of apportionment

E6 Trustees to act by majority

Subject to the requirements of proviso (A) to Clause B2 i (when applicable) the Trustees shall act by majority.

E7 Receipt of trustees

The receipt of the Trustees or of any person duly appointed by them for the purpose shall be a valid discharge of any person's liability to pay money to the Trust (if such person acts in good faith and has no notice of the revocation of the agent's authority where applicable), and such person shall not be concerned to see to the application of such money.

E8 Power to receive additional property

The Trustees may, at any time during the Trust Period, accept additional money, investments or other property, of whatever nature and wherever situate, paid or transferred to them by the Donor or any other person. E10 Duration of powers

Every power, authority or discretion conferred on the Trustees, or any other person, by these Trust Terms shall (notwithstanding anything to the contrary expressed or implied in these Trust Terms) only be exercisable during such period (whether definite or indefinite) as in the case of the particular power, authority or discretion the law may allow.
