

GOVERNED RANGE GOVERNED RETIREMENT INCOME PORTFOLIO 3 FACTSHEET

Risk Grading : Risk Rating 3

What is a Governed Retirement Income Portfolio?

Choosing a suitable portfolio of funds to meet your requirements can be difficult. Our range of Governed Retirement Income Portfolios is designed to help with exactly that.

A Governed Retirement Income Portfolio matches your risk attitude to a suitable mix of assets and funds. There are five portfolios to choose from so you can select the one that best suits your risk attitude.

What governance process is in place?

Your portfolio comes with ongoing governance. This simply means that our investment experts check it regularly. It allows us to maintain the best mix of assets in line with the risk category - and to make sure it is performing in line with its overall objectives - aiming to give you the best returns. The value of your investment can go down as well as up and you may not get back the value of the original investment.

If our experts decide that the mix of assets needs to be adjusted, it happens automatically on your behalf, you don't need to do anything. What's more, this service comes at no extra cost.

Who is this portfolio designed for?

It is designed for someone who is taking income from their plan and can accept a level of uncertainty in their future income consistent with a risk rating 3 attitude to risk.

If you are in any doubt about the suitability of any particular type of investment, you should seek professional financial advice.

Advisers may charge for providing such advice and should confirm any costs beforehand.

What is the investment objective?

This portfolio aims to deliver growth above inflation to support regular income withdrawals, whilst taking a level of risk consistent with a risk rating 3 risk attitude.

Does the portfolio rebalance?

This portfolio rebalances monthly. If a portfolio is not rebalanced regularly, the asset mix can drift significantly over time changing the suitability of the portfolio.

What is the portfolio benchmark?

The benchmark is a target against which performance is measured.

This benchmark is regularly reviewed and may be updated by Royal London so that it remains appropriate for the investor profile as detailed in the section "Who is this portfolio designed for?" or where a component index is discontinued or replaced.

The benchmark for this portfolio is a composite of indices:

Details of changes to the portfolio

The following table documents the last 3 changes that Royal London have made to this portfolio.

Effective Date of Change	Overview of Changes
07/08/2025	Governed Retirement Income Portfolio 3 Stock markets have extended their rally over recent weeks, marking a third consecutive month of gains. Despite an uncertain macro backdrop and persistently elevated policy uncertainty, this strength in stocks has been underpinned by a strong start to corporate earnings season, alongside a series of positive economic data surprises. We are adding to equities at the margin, increasing our overweight position. Elsewhere, we remain neutral on commodities, and retain our modest underweight position in bonds.

Effective Date of Change	Overview of Changes
17/07/2025	Governed Retirement Income Portfolio 3 Stock markets have continued to grind higher over recent weeks, with indices moving back towards all time highs. Geopolitical tensions remain elevated and the impact of tariffs on the global economy is still unclear. While technical factors have continued to improve, we have added to our position in global equities which moves the portfolios to a modest overweight position given that uncertainty in the macro environment over the medium term. We have also added to our position in high yield bonds. Elsewhere, we have reduced our allocation to government bonds, moving to a modest underweight position.
03/07/2025	Governed Retirement Income Portfolio 3 Stock markets have rallied back towards all-time highs over recent weeks, as risk appetite has been supported by easing tensions in the Middle East. We are marginally adding to equities against an improving technical backdrop, with volatility now at subdued levels. Elsewhere, we are moving neutral on commodities following the reduction in geopolitical risks but continue to remain broadly neutral on bonds in the current macroeconomic climate.
