

GOVERNED RANGE GOVERNED PORTFOLIO 4 FACTSHEET

Risk Grading : Moderately Cautious / Balanced

What is a Governed Portfolio?

Choosing a suitable portfolio of funds to meet your requirements can be difficult. Our range of Governed Portfolios is designed to help with exactly that.

A Governed Portfolio matches your risk attitude to a suitable mix of assets and funds. There are nine portfolios to choose from so you can select the one that best suits your risk attitude and time to retirement.

What governance process is in place?

Your portfolio comes with ongoing governance. This simply means that our investment experts check it regularly. It allows us to maintain the best mix of assets in line with the risk category - and to make sure it is performing in line with its overall objectives - aiming to give you the best returns. The value of your investment can go down as well as up and you may not get back the value of the original investment.

If our experts decide that the mix of assets needs to be adjusted, it happens automatically on your behalf, you don't need to do anything. What's more, this service comes at no extra cost.

For full details of our governance process please visit our website at royallondon.com/pensioninvestments.

Who is this portfolio designed for?

It is designed for someone who has a moderately cautious or balanced attitude to risk and is a long time away from retirement.

If you are not sure what your risk attitude is you can complete our online Risk Attitude Profiling Questionnaire at royallondon.com/pensioninvestments to give you an idea of your attitude to risk.

If you are in any doubt about the suitability of any particular type of investment, you should seek professional financial advice. Advisers may charge for providing such advice and should confirm any costs beforehand.

What is the investment objective?

This portfolio aims to deliver above inflation growth in the value of the fund at retirement, whilst taking a level of risk consistent with a moderately cautious or balanced risk attitude over a long time period.

Does the portfolio rebalance?

This portfolio rebalances monthly. If a portfolio is not rebalanced regularly, the asset mix can drift significantly over time changing the suitability of the portfolio.

What is the portfolio benchmark?

The benchmark is a target against which performance is measured.

This benchmark is regularly reviewed and may be updated by Royal London so that it remains appropriate for the investor profile as detailed in the section "Who is this portfolio designed for?" or where a component index is discontinued or replaced.

The benchmark for this portfolio is a composite of indices:

Details of changes to the portfolio

The following table documents the last 3 changes that Royal London have made to this portfolio.

Effective Date of Change	Overview of Changes
18/04/2024	Governed Portfolio 4 We remain overweight equities as the fundamental picture continues to be supportive. However, we have reduced the size of our overweight in stocks given signs that resilient economic data could see policy rates staying higher for longer. We are modestly underweight bonds. Elsewhere, we have added to commodities; a pickup in global growth outlook has come alongside supply concerns and an increase geopolitical risk, all which provide upside risk for the asset class. We remain underweight property.
21/03/2024	Governed Portfolio 4 Global stocks have continued to make new highs, and we believe this may have further to run. We remain overweight equities and expect the recent improvements in global growth indicators to feed through to corporate earnings upgrades over the year. Elsewhere, we have trimmed our underweight position in commodities, which have picked up from low levels. Oil prices have risen amid rising geopolitical risk and reduction in US inventories. We remain broadly neutral bonds and underweight property.

Effective Date of Change	Overview of Changes
22/02/2024	Governed Portfolio 4 Equity markets have continued to climb over the recent weeks, supported by decent Q4 corporate earnings and improvements in business optimism. We remain overweight equities and have added to this position as both macro and technical factors remain supportive for the asset class. Elsewhere we remain underweight commodities and have deepened this position more recently as weaker Chinese demand data has seen the asset class continue to trend lower. We remain modestly underweight property.
